

Dear Co-Chair Kennedy, Co-Chair Albis, and Honorable Members of the Environment Committee,

Please accept this as my testimony in SUPPORT of HB 5578, AN ACT PROHIBITING THE SALE AND TRADE OF IVORY AND RHINOCEROS HORN.

I vote, and this issue is important to me.

I support HB 5578 because:

- Unprecedented global poaching crisis: Wildlife trafficking is an escalating global crisis fueled in part by the U.S. ivory market – which is among the top few markets globally. Between 2010 and 2012, 100,000 elephants were killed for their ivory – an average of one every 15 minutes. All extant five rhino species are threatened with extinction, with merely 29,000 remaining worldwide.
- Horrific cruelty: Elephant and rhino poaching is a brutal and bloody practice – animals are sometimes chased with helicopters and shot down with military-grade weapons. Tusks and horns are harvested by cutting off the faces of the sometimes still-living animals. Babies are often killed for their tiny stubble of tusk or horn. Elephant babies, who do not have tusks, are left as orphans; unable to fend for themselves, they often die if not rescued by humans.
- During the last decade, more than one thousand park rangers across the world have been killed by poachers while on duty.
- Intrastate loophole: Federal laws do not reach into intrastate (within a state) commerce, thus providing a major loophole for illegal ivory or ivory of unknown origins to be laundered into our state and sold to unsuspecting Connecticut residents.
- Federal laws and regulations pertaining to ivory trade are confusing and riddled with loopholes that are exploited by those involved in the international and domestic ivory trade. The difficulty of distinguishing legally acquired ivory from ivory of recently poached elephants are exploited by unscrupulous dealers to launder illicit ivory into our marketplace. This leads to consumer confusion about what is legal and what is not. The result is a flourishing, poorly regulated domestic ivory market in the United States.
- This bill would NOT criminalize possession or prohibit inheritance gifts—this bill takes aim the market for ivory (i.e., trade and sales).
- Connecticut must not become a haven for illicit ivory. Surrounding states have either already passed laws (NY, NJ) or are in the process (MA, VT); Connecticut needs to do the same. There have been several recent significant ivory and rhino horn seizures in the northeast.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Yours truly,
Mary Lawrence
