

These majestic animals do not deserve the pain and suffering of humans.
They are part of our heritage and deserve to be appreciated and kept because of what they do for the earth and they were here long before us.
Let us protect and nurture so that they can live.

Michele Nanfita