

The tyranny and corruption in Connecticut has got to stop.

The last remaining wild places [very, very few] and our beloved and much needed Wildlife deserve our utmost care and concern as we encroach upon their native territories.

Handgun hunting is out of the question. It is ludicrous.

This is an unthinkable ignorant demand from an interest group that is a MINORITY.

Sincerely,

Ginger Dupont