

Although I am in favor of banning the sale and purchase of ivory products going forward I am not in favor of criminalizing holding or selling of musical instruments made with vintage or antique ivory. There are many such antique instruments in the state and making those who own them criminals will not solve the endangered species problem. Please make exceptions to this bill for vintage and antique musical instruments.

James Davidson