

To whom it may concern,

I urge the committee to approach the pending legislation on banning ivory with moderation and common sense. I would hope that any approach will have the teeth to prevent further killing of elephants while at the same time recognizing the historical value of objects made years ago utilizing ivory. Please don't make the ownership of fine pianos and artwork a criminal offense.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Rickard
Deep River
Connecticut 06417