

It is difficult to believe that in the U.S.A. citizens could face becoming criminals because of something they purchased legally and is harmless to its citizens as is proposed by SB-227. And all due to concern for a non-native animal.

Help the African nations obtain more land and Rangers to protect the elephant herds. Find some way to discourage demand in Asia, mostly China.

Leave people who own an ivory chess set, rosary beads, crucifixes, musical instruments such as pianos, guitars, and bagpipes, jewelry such as necklaces, rings, and bracelets, or antique carvings that reflect our cultural heritage alone. OR compensate them for their items as required by the Constitution.
