

Connecticut needs a full scale shared solar program as soon as possible. We need to maximize green energy, and reduce global warming. A pilot program is unnecessary because pilot and full-scale programs in other states have shown how well a good program can work. Waiting another two years for a program is not acceptable. We also should be working to transfer control of our energy future away from large business and to smaller community based renewable energy systems.

Royal Graves
21 Prospect Street
Wethersfield, CT 06109