

Robert Anderson
randerson02@snet.net
Plainville, Connecticut 06062

The revenue from the services rendered have already been taxed at point (time) of sale. It is unfair to tax the dollars again.

This will cut quality services needed for all residents in this state.

How about looking at cutting State spending?

Maybe our State Workers can pay their fair share to start the cutting of costs.