

Elana Suzanne
Bristol,, Connecticut 06010
United States

We need to eliminate this tax because the state already receives taxes on these facilities, and the strain of this second tax is left on an already overtaxed and over-burdened public trying to cover healthcare costs. The state is hitting the most vulnerable with this action, and I believe it is time to stop reducing medical opportunities to the citizens of Connecticut.