

Michael DeSantis
Michael_desantis@aol.com
Bethlehem, Connecticut 06751

Representative government should always offer constituents the opportunity to voice an opinion so that the elected representative can then pass on this "voice" in the form of his vote on a particular issue. So too it must be for Senate Bill 337. Once again the residents of CT have been taxed without representation. Let the people speak as I believe they will reject another working class tax!