

Edward Hardy
edh14@sbcglobal.net
Oxford, Connecticut 064781907

In addition to being another attempt to tax everything imaginable in the State of Connecticut until we all leave the State, this one is very difficult for operators to collect. Since many of the car washes depend upon collection devices that accept bills only, it will require car wash owners to either eat the cost of the tax or else charge an additional dollar to collect it. This is another thoughtless incursion on the businesses and citizens of our State.