

Giancarlo Petraroia
gpetraroia@gmail.com
Connecticut 06779

Doesn't the governor and other politicians in power see the exodus of so many people and business organizations from Connecticut. Can someone please explain to me why there has to be so many taxes on our lives? Is it not enough that they take so much in income, sales, property and transactional tax? I would like to see some business oriented leaders and not career politicians in office running our state and country for a change.