

Gary Onofrio
Ponofrio11@yahoo.com
Bristol, Connecticut 06010

With the new road treatments it has become necessary to wash cars as often as possible in the winter. This tax is just another way to take money away from the people that can least afford it. I think the name of the Democrat who proposed this tax should be published so the people of this state can see which politician hatched this stupid tax.