

Les Kish
lskish@comcast.net bristol, Connecticut 06010

I think any public money going to a stadium for a private company is an economic waste to the tax payer. There is no justification for any money going to a private concern. Hartford will not reap any reward from a minor league team. The move to Hartford from New Britain was just a greedy move with no justification. I hope they implode,