I urge CT Legislators to pass HB 147, a Bill that would increase the maximum penalty for 2nd time animal abuse offenders.

It has been proven that those who abuse animals are more likely to abuse children and women.

I have always adopted rescue dogs and have been ashamed, appalled and disgusted to see how many animals have been abandoned and abused.

It is clear to me that if those who commit this abuse are not given proper and sufficient punishment, they will continue crimes on all of God's creatures.

A Nation which allows this kind of outrage displays to all its lack of respect and compassion for all humanity.

Please pass HB 147 and show your humanity.

Sincerely,

Ana M. Lachelier
