

Naftolin, Frederick Frederick.Naftolin@nyumc.org

PDtestimony

Click Fix is a fine program. It should be used widely. This could save lives and money, as well as making for a more informed citizenry.

However, this program must be supervised and responsive to the principles of public, not private, service. Several messages we received were either not necessary or apparently had political purposes.

Please pass along these comments, with hope that this program becomes a public utility, not a matter of polictics.

Thank you, FN.