

I am writing in support of SB 292.

As a Special education teacher and registered behavior technician, I work closely with behavior analysts and see the dramatic improvement in my students who receive applied behavior analytic services. This licensure will improve protection for consumers of these services.

It is extremely imperative that we pass this bill today!

Sincerely,

Ashley Kochan