

- I am opposed to SB 300.
- This deal sets bad precedent that will surely be used to push for other land swaps around the state. It will weaken essential protections for our drinking water lands.
- Making major decisions about water supply before the state water plan is completed is premature. The promised reservoir wouldn't be done for four decades; we can wait one more year to see the final state water plan.

Elkind, Raphe