

Do not allow Tilcon to lease this property for stone mining in exchange for creating a new reservoir for New Britain. Changing a state law that was designed to protect the environment and public water supply from commercial interests would set a very dangerous precedent. I have read that protection of Class 1 and Class 11 land has been the cornerstone of Connecticut's high drinking water standards for 30 years. Let's not screw it up.

Julie Winkel