AN ACT CONCERNING EMPLOYER INQUIRIES ABOUT AN EMPLOYEE'S OR PROSPECTIVE EMPLOYEE'S CREDIT HISTORY.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General
Assembly convened:

1 Section 1. Section 31-51tt of the general statutes is repealed and the 2 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2016):

3 (a) As used in this section:

4 (1) "Employee" means any person engaged in service to an employer
5 in a business of his employer;

6 (2) "Employer" means any person engaged in business who has one 7 or more employees, including the state or any political subdivision of 8 the state;

9 (3) "Financial institution" means (A) any entity or affiliate of a state 10 bank and trust company, national banking association, state or 11 federally chartered savings bank, state or federally chartered savings 12 and loan association, state or federally chartered credit union,
13 insurance company, investment advisor, broker-dealer, (B) an entity
14 registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or (C) any

15 mortgage broker, mortgage correspondent lender or mortgage lender
16 licensed pursuant to chapter 668 or any mortgage servicing company, 17 as defined in section 36a-715; and

18 (4) "Substantially related to the employee's current or potential job" 19 means the information contained in the credit report is related to the 20 position for which the employee or prospective employee who is the 21 subject of the report is being evaluated because the position:

22 (A) Is a managerial position which involves setting the direction or 23 control of a business, division, unit or an agency of a business;

24 (B) Involves access to customers', employees' or the employer's
25 personal or financial information other than information customarily 26 provided in a retail transaction;

27 (C) Involves a fiduciary responsibility to the employer, including,
28 but not limited to, the authority to issue payments, collect debts,
29 transfer money or enter into contracts;

30 (D) Provides an expense account or corporate debit or credit card;

31 (E) Provides access to (i) confidential or proprietary business
32 information, or (ii) information, including a formula, pattern,
33 compilation, program, device, method, technique, process or trade
34 secret that: (I) Derives independent economic value, actual or 35 potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily 36 ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain
37 economic value from the disclosure or use of the information; and (II) 38 is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to 39 maintain its secrecy; or

40 (F) Involves access to [the employer's nonfinancial assets valued at 41 two thousand five dollars or more, including, but not limited to,] 42 museum and library collections [and] or to prescription drugs and 43 other pharmaceuticals.

44 (b) No employer or employer's agent, representative or designee
45 may require an employee or prospective employee to consent to a 46 request for a credit report that contains information about the 47 employee's or prospective employee's credit score, credit account 48 balances, payment history, savings or checking account balances or 49 savings or checking account numbers as a condition of employment 50 unless (1) such employer is a financial institution, (2) such report is 51 required by law, (3) the employer reasonably believes that the 52 employee has engaged in specific activity that constitutes a violation of 53 the law related to the employee's employment, or (4) such report is 54 substantially related to the employee's current or potential job or the 55 employer has a bona fide purpose for requesting or using information 56 in the credit report that is substantially job-related and is disclosed in 57 writing to the employee or applicant.

58 (c) Any employee or prospective employee may file a complaint
59 with the Labor Commissioner alleging a violation of the provisions of 60 subsection (b) of this section. Within thirty days after the filing of such 61 complaint, the commissioner shall conduct an investigation and shall 62 render his findings. Should such findings warrant, the commissioner 63 shall hold a hearing, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54.
64 An employer shall be liable to the Labor Department for a civil penalty 65 of three hundred dollars for each inquiry made in violation of 66 subsection (b) of this section.

67 (d) The Attorney General, upon complaint of the Labor
68 Commissioner, shall institute civil actions to recover the penalties
69 provided for under subsection (c) of this section. Any amount
70 recovered shall be deposited in the General Fund.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:
