

I keep hearing that brain-injured citizens are on the waiting list of services, now they get to the top of the list, and they are put on indefinite hold (a/k/a denied services) due to supposed budget issues. Really? We cannot afford to provide much needed services to 13 individuals who have been waiting in some cases for many years? Let's cut somewhere else so these people can get the services they need so desperately.

Regards,

Rebecca A. Shafer, Attorney
45 Echo Rd.
Mansfield Center, CT 06250