

I am writing to urge you to approve the Seal of Biliteracy for students in Connecticut who actively work to maintain fluency in 2 languages. This skill is crucial for developing the intercultural, global perspectives that we so need in our citizens and our workforce. This distinction gives language learners the recognition they deserve for being part of a positive change for uniting people across the world.

Thank you,
Sarah Lindstrom
Spanish teacher from Glastonbury, CT
175