

We must secure and preserve land to ensure the natural, scenic historic and esthetic qualities of our environment. Doing so ensures ecological balance. Without ecological balance, extinction of species and other ecological disasters will affect the quality of life of future generations.

Michael Meinz