

In light of the recent debacle involving the unsuccessful, infamous attempted "land swap" for the scenic East Haddam Connecticut River overlook property, it is essential that the state Constitution be amended to prevent future nefarious activities involving CT forest land, parks, wildlife areas and other open space.

Roger Kern