

My water and air is already overly poisoned from Chemtrails, low grade pharmaceuticals and intentional additives. None of which are good for life in general. Any help to reverse or at least stop the progression of more tainting and poisoning is a step in the right direction. Replacing natural topology with pavement and buildings is NOT progress, it's destruction and it's not necessary.

Ross Gordon, Milford