

Richard Adams
Radams180@comcast.net
Higganum, Connecticut 06441

Sure would like to see the income tax on SS benefits eliminated.
Being retired we try to earn some extra money to supplement our income and it just raises our income bracket so we have to pay more taxes on our SS benefits.
It was never meant to be taxable and many, if not most, states don't tax it.
Any taxes we can cut will help slow down the outflow of people to other states because of our high taxes!