

Amy Ancel
aancel@optonline.net
Westport, Connecticut 06880United States

As I get closer to retirement, I am specifically looking at states to move to that don't tax Social Security benefits. While I would love to stay in Connecticut, the taxes and cost of living here are too high for people living on a fixed income. Eliminating the personal income tax on Social Security benefits would be a big step in the right direction. I hope the legislature will vote to do so!