

Thomas Bloch
tbloch@comcast.net
Moodus, Connecticut 06469-1104
United States

I have always wondered why it was felt necessary and fair to tax Social Security benefits on either the federal or state level. This is money that was already taxed when it was earned. Senior citizens such as myself depend on to pay living expenses at a time when our income is greatly reduced, so taxing it is the same as taking bread off our tables. Please get rid of this tax!