

Robert Borden
reborden@comcast.net
East Haddam, Connecticut 06423
United States

I already paid tax on the income that paid my social security. Now it just gets taxed a second time.

As a retired person living on a fixed income I should not have to pay taxes on any retirement pension income.

Retired people like to spend money on travel, eating out, the theater, donations to charity and family, not have the government take their hard earned money and toss it in the big black hole (General Fund) and spend it on what ever suits their fancy.

Bob Borden