

Cary Cassidy
Carycassidy@comcast.net
Higganum, Connecticut 06441

Elimination of the social security tax would help keep seniors in the state which would help grow Connecticut's economy and improve the real estate market and equity in people's homes. This tax makes it unaffordable for seniors to remain in the state and should be repealed.