

Alphonse DAmico
Adamico@pearse-bertram.com
East Hampton, Connecticut 06424

SS should NEVER be taxed. When you are on a limited fixed budget, taxing SS makes no sense. Hard to retire in this state with high property taxes, high gasoline taxes, high sales taxes, and other astronomical hidden taxes in everything you do in this state. Unless this law changes, I will take everything I earn here and retire in a more affordable state.