

Penny Daniels
penny_249@optonline.net
Watertown, Connecticut 06795

I have recently retired at 70 years old and would like to stay in this state which is beautiful and I love, however we are being taxed on this income while being deprived of the value of our lifetime savings. As we all know the taxes in this state are near the top nationally and this just adds to the overall burden.....Connecticut needs to be business friendly AND retirement friendly as well.....