

Anna Fahy
annafahy01@comcast.net
24 Cedar lane Colchester, Connecticut 06415

Social Security is not a benefit. This is a program that was designed for the taxpayer that contributes to the program to be reimbursed at age 62 or 65, whichever they choose. This is taxed money going into the program. To tax it again is unfair to the recipient. This money originally belongs to the recipient, not the government.

I oppose this tax and personal property taxes.

Anna Fahy
Colchester