

Juan Fernandez
fermar13@yahoo.com
Waterford, Connecticut 06385

Retirees speaking with family and friends living in other states are made to feel ridiculous when SS retirement income is not taxed there while in CT we do. Perhaps this is one reason many are leaving this state. I bet a large number of state employees will plan leaving Connecticut after they retire. However, the tax revenue must be found somewhere. Hopefully, not another "take from the rich" Democrat scheme. Malloy is the worst governor in Connecticut history.