

John Jascot
Jajascot@comcast.net
East Haddam, Connecticut 06423

We earned our retirement income and have a right to spend or save it according to our own preferences not the State of CT. Eliminating this tax on social security income should follow on the footsteps of the elimination of taxes on military retirement income I say spend those dollars in our own local community if the State wants to prevent an out of state migration of retirees