

Leland Krake
dutch.krake@gmail.com
Bethlehem, Connecticut 06751

The money that we paid into the social security system for years could have been personally invested in stocks, bonds, mutual funds, etc. and hopefully increased in value. We would then pay taxes on those profits and capital gains. As it is, many are referring to SS payments as entitlements, same as welfare. Give me a break!