

Joan Leavitt
joan.leavitt5@gmail.com
Farmington, Connecticut 06032

Far too many seniors are struggling to pay their everyday expenses. Visit a food bank and you will find proud seniors who are forced to partake of the generosity of others. These proud men and women worked their entire lives only to be forced to lean on others in their golden years. If passed this bill will enable our elderly to have funds to help meet their current needs.