

Raymond Lebert Jr
Relebert@sbcglobal.net
Deep River, Connecticut 06417
United States

Social Security was enacted to provide retired persons with a source of income to meet their daily financial needs. This is actually the retirees money that was taken out of their paychecks specifically to support the Social Security system. It makes absolutely no sense to tax this money. By the way, we have not seen an increase in benefits over the past several years, while our expenses continue to increase. The COLA is a joke.