

Don Mahoney
don_mahoney@comcast.net
Bethel, Connecticut CT

Since retiring, it's become very obvious that CT is not a retirement friendly state. Social Security, Pensions, 401K distributions being taxed at the state level are all part of CT's retirement unfriendly environment. The result of these policies is that you are driving retirees out of the state. In the long term, this hurts CT competitiveness, and puts pressure on home prices.

Stop driving retirees out of CT.