

Arthur Mannion
kdz@aol.com
Danbury, Connecticut 06810

Social Security income is the sole support of many of my elderly clients. To have their small incomes subject to tax is shameful, even when coupled with pension payments. Folks have worked and paid taxes for over 40 years and their reward is more taxes. It is time for the state to spend only for needs, not wants, so the retired can pay for their needs without the ignominy of applying for food stamps.