

Dominic Marrara
marrarad@ymail.com
32 Spice Bush Drive, Connecticut 06415

As a tax payer for 35 + years when I retires it will not be appropriate that the money I have invested for my retirement should be taxed. i Have paid my share of taxes to the government. There should be a reduced fee for retirees. Retired people actually use less of the services that other would normally use in there life time.
I will have to leave this state if there is no relief in taxes after retirement.