

Bruce Miller
Westport, Connecticut 06880

Simply looking at the property tax burden in many CT towns would convince a senior to flee to a more tax friendly clime as a large chunk of their pre-tax social security would be eaten up by taxes BEFORE the CT personal income tax.

You simply must attack the reputation of CT as being unfriendly to business and families on all fronts. Eliminating the income tax on social security would be a start.