

Sylvia Miller
sjmiller1971@comcast.net
Colchester, Connecticut 06415

I have worked very hard for many years and would appreciate a relief from the very heavy tax burden that my family and I already have. Social Security should not be taxed, or at the very least a nominal one time stipend to the Government. If I had managed my finances all these years like the State and Federal government, I would be living in my car in retirement.