

Charles Petruccelli
chuckp@optonline.net
16 Woodland Drive, Connecticut 06896

I have lived in Connecticut all my life. When my wife retires next year, we will be moving to a state more tax friendly to retirees. It's not hard since Connecticut is one of the least friendly, fifth worse if I remember correctly. Anything to bring the tax burden down on retirees would help. You still get to tax my 401k earnings and my wife's teachers' pension.