

Robert Power
Rap7363@aol.com
Ridgefield, Connecticut 06877

It is my understanding that CT is one of very few states where Social Security income is taxed. This in itself is inequitable. I am a retiree and Social security benefits are an important and significant part of my income. I strongly feel such benefit which I have paid for during my working years, should not be taxed.