

Eric Schless
eschless@optonline.net
5 Ledge Road, Connecticut 06870

The tax burden in Connecticut is going to destroy this great state. If you tax Social Security, people who can will move out of the State. Those are precisely the people that the State should want to stay. If the State had its own costs under control, this would not be necessary.