

L.W. Sessions

lwsessions@optimum.net

148 Brushy Ridge Rd., Connecticut 06840

A personal income tax on Social Security benefits not only is clearly unfair, but it depletes the survival income for couples like my wife and myself (ages 96 and 95) who depend on it. I paid into Social Security during my entire working life, knowing it was an insurance policy for later life. To tax it away, just when one needs it is cruel and unjust punishment.

L.W.Sessions