

Timothy Slade
trs1vet@cox.net
79 Brewster Rd., Enfield, CT, Connecticut 06082

Given that most individuals have already paid income tax on SS deductions while working, an additional tax on those funds are a double slap in the face of retiree's. Continuing to tax residents to make up for poor spending habits by the state just adds to the burden retiree's face.

Thank you for listening.