

Lauri Sturwold
lcsdre@aol.com
Clinton, Connecticut 06413
United States

We have already paid taxes when we earned the money that went into the Social Security account. Other states do not tax the Social Security payments and CT already had enough in taxes without taxing these earnings of older people.