

Alison Tripp
tripperam@aol.com
North Canaan, Connecticut 06018

Seniors and others living on social security don't need to be taxed-they are already living on lower wages than a working person. Adding the tax is a burden that they should not have! Food, electricity, heat, that is what they should be paying for, not worrying about additional taxes. Please spare these people who already are living at poverty level from paying from the low amount of money they are getting!